PLUNGE FROM BRIDGE

THREE COACHES OF AN ELECTRIC TRAIN ARE WRECKED AT ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

SCORES OF PEOPLE PERISH

FROM FIFTY TO EIGHTY PERSONS ARE BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN DROWNED.

FORTY-FOUR BODIES FOUND

AND FULLY THIRTY MORE ARE REPORTED TO BE IN THE SUBMERGED CARS.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 29.—Nineteen bodies have just been brought in to the improvised morgue and a diver who has made a thorough inspection of the submerged cars stated that at least thirty bodies were still in the coaches. It is impossible to identify any of the newly recovered bodies. The total dead recovered now number forty-four.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 29.—By the wrecking of a three-coach electric train on the West Jersey and Seashore railroad in the afternoon at least fifty passengers perished, and the list may reach the total of seventy-five when all is known.

While crossing over a drawbridge, spanning the waterway known as "The Thoroughfare," which separates Atlantic City from the mainland, the train left the track and plunged into the water. The passengers in the first two coaches with one or two exceptions were drowned.

Up to midnight twenty-five bodies had been recovered and it is believed that at least twenty-five and possibly fifty more bodies still are in the submerged coaches.

The disaster, the worst that has happened since the terrible Meadow Creek wreck of July 30, 1896, occurred at 2:30 p. m. The train, made up of three heavy vestibuled electric coaches, which left Camden at 1:15 p. m., carried at least eighty-eight passengers and that number of tickets are held by the conductor. That official is uncertain, however, just how many passengers were on the train, and until all the bodies have been taken out of the submerged coaches it will not be possible to give the true figures of the dead.

Cause of Wreck Unknown.

The cause of the wreck has not been established. It was probably due either to a defective rail or the breaking of some part of the superstructure of the first coach. It has also been suggested that the drawbridge, which had just been closed after the passage of a yacht, may not have properly locked the rails. All the stories as to the cause of the accident, however, are purely speculative.

While running at a speed said to have been moderate, the first coach left the rails and dragged those following it over the ties for a distance of fifty feet. Suddenly swerving the first two coaches plunged over the side of the bridge into the water below. The third coach struck an abutment, broke its couplings and for a brief time hung suspended over the water. Brief as was this period, however, it gave more than a score of passengers an opportunity to escape by the rear door. Then the car slid off and followed the other two into the water. It is believed every one in the third coach escaped alive, although all were injured.

The accident was witnessed by many persons on shore and assistance was promptly sent from Atlantic City. Little could be done, however, towards saving the lives of those imprisoned in the submerged coaches. Water at the point where the train plunged in was not deep enough to cover the coaches at first but as they quickly settled in the mud and as the tide rose they were soon hidden from sight except for the trolley poles. Divers were sent down to try to reach the dead bodies in the coaches but as darkness set in and as the tide ran more swiftly they were unable for a long time to reach them.

Several Bodies Recovered.

Late in the evening a wrecking crew arrived on the scene and with their aid and the use of a derrick a dozen or more bodies were taken out and brought to this city. Of the twenty-five bodies about twenty have been identified and it is believed no difficulty will be experienced in establishing the identity of the others.

General Manager W. W. Atterbury of the Pennsylvania railroad has arrived on the scene and will make a thorough investigation into the cause of the accident. Until this investigation shall have been made Mr. Atterbury declined to make any statement.

Coroner Gaskill declares that he will probe the cause of the wreck to the bottom and place the responsibility where it belongs. "I arrived at the drawbridge," said the coroner, "shortly after the accident occurred. With Mr. Atterbury I made a thorough inspection. The railroad officials claim to be at a loss to explain the cause of the wreck. Several important facts were brought out. I found the end of the drawbridge tracks higher than the ends of the other track. Consequently it was impossible for a train traveling fast to avoid jumping and being in danger of leaving the rails.

"That the wheels of the train had hit the ends of the rails with terrific force was shown by the battered condition of the rails, which, however, is at variance with the statement made by the bridge tender. According to Mr. Atterbury, the bridge tender told him that the bridge had just been closed and that he had gone to either end of the draw to remove the danger flags which had been placed there when the bridge was about to be opened. The bridge man told Mr. Atterbury he was positive the tracks were perfectly locked. My own investigation shows this not to have been the case. My attention has been called to the fact that there are no guard rails of any kind on the bridge. Had there been they might have prevented the train plunging into Thoroughfare even if they had jumped the tracks. I will find out if the law requires protection of this kind. I will not be in a hurry with the investigation as I want to get all possible information. It is impossible at this time to ascertain how many persons lost their lives, but from what I am told I fear the number will be in the neighborhood of seventy-five."

PASSENGERS ON THE TRAIN.

Members of the Royal Artillery Band Perished.

Philadelphia, Oct. 29.—The Italian quarter of this city was plunged into grief at the news of the Atlantic City accident. The Royal Artillery band, the members of which resided here, were passengers on the ill-fated train. Nearly all of them are reported to have been drowned.

With his right foot crushed, Tasca, leader of the Royal Artillery band, returned to his home in this city.

"The victims were drowned like rats in a trap," he said. "No one screamed that I heard. The second car piled on the first and our car turned on its end, and only part was covered with water. We were thrown in a heap in the front part of the car, which was the part in the water. As soon as I got to a window that was out of the water I kicked the glass out of it. My foot got caught in a part of the wreckage and I was held a prisoner for what seemed a long time. As I was about to give up hope a man arrived with a rope, and by hard pulling some of the survivors got me free."

Carl D. Annunzio, a member of the band who returned to this city, said "everyone in my car could have escaped if they had not fought one another."

John Curtis, conductor of the train, has also reached this city. He said he was in the second car of the train when the accident occurred. Curtis says that he and a negro were the only persons to escape from the car.

ENDS HER LIFE IN CHURCH.

Nebraska Woman Commits Suicide in a Cathedral.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 29.—Miss Nettie Brown, aged twenty-six years, said to be the daughter of D. C. Brown of Lincoln, Neb., committed suicide in the Catholic cathedral by taking carbolic acid.

Miss Brown came to Kansas City about three weeks ago and registered at one of the leading hotels. She remained several days. Later she changed her hotel, going to another one, also first-class. At the latter place, without funds, she asked the hotel people to telegraph her "guardian" in Omaha. The answer from the Omaha man satisfied the hotel authorities that he had no connection with her, and she was requested to leave. Sunday she attended services at the cathedral. It was noticed that she remained in the church after the congregation had left, but nothing was thought of it. Later, however, she was discovered in a pew dead.

Farmers After Incendiaries.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 29.—A posse of farmers armed with shotguns and rifles and with bloodhounds are here on the trail of the men who destroyed a corn shredder on the farm of John Elliott. A number of barns, corn shredders and threshing machines have been destroyed recently in the vicinity of Hazleton and the farmers are excited.

Poisoned by Pea Soup.

St. Paul, Oct. 29.—Linton Elliott, a traveling man boarding with T. H. Burke, awoke in the morning and found his wife dead. Death is believed to have been caused by ptomaine poisoning from the fact that Mr. and Mrs. G. Clark of Minneapolis, who partook of the same pea soup as Mrs. Elliott, are seriously ill.

Don't miss the political meeting to-night at the opera house.

The democrats are asking the independent voter to exercise his rights and vote the democratic ticket. In their estimation an independent voter is one who votes with them.

Not a voter in the city should miss the address of Senator Clapp at the opera house tonight. Never mind if the weather is a little inclement, the opera house will be comfortable.

SHOULDER to shoulder the republicans will win all along the line this year, and the united effort that is being put forth in this city and county for the entire ticket is an indication of success.

The enthusiasm for A. L. Cole is increasing every day and the people seem to be waking up to the fact that it is to the interest of the masses that he should be elected governor. Keep the campaign hot until the polls close Nov. 6th.

E. H. SIMMONS is putting up a good campaign for sheriff and he should be elected to the office. He is in every way qualified to make the county an excellent official. Vote for Simmons for sheriff and you will not regret it.

The people of the city of Brainerd will rally to the support of A. J. Halsted for mayor and he will be elected on Nov. 6th by a good old time majority. Mr. Halsted has been tried in the place before and always to his credit.

Now that we have a city ticket in the field and all the candidates are before the people there is a chance to do good work for the entire ticket all along the line from governor to coroner and from mayor to the bottom of the city ticket. To win the republicans must work concertedly and persistently.

GIVE the gentlemen who are to speak at the opera house tonight a rousing reception. The old time enthusiasm seems to have been awakened and after the meeting tonight we expect to see every loyal republican out hustling for the success of the ticket.

It's up to the people now, and if they want a republican governor at the head of state affairs they have a chance to elect one. Not so much because he is a republican as because he is the man who can accomplish some things that will bring prosperity to northern Minnesota and the whole state. What helps one locality helps the whole state.

The fight for the commissionership in the Second district is warming up but C. A. Krech, the republican nominee, says he will come under the wire with a good majority to his credit. He believes the people who voted for him at the primaries will be loyal and inasmuch as he has the party backing he has no apologies to offer for his candidacy. As a resident of the district for years he is thoroughly acquainted with the needs and requirements and he will at all times use his endeavors to represent them and the whole county in a fair and impartial manner.

LINDBERGH'S CANDIDACY

C. A. Lindbergh at one time made a statement that as all professions and all classes of business and labor were organizing into associations, the farmers, too, in order to keep up with the times should organize—not in opposition to any other industry or business, but to work in harmony, and especially to co-operate with the country merchants so that both could get the benefit of their associations to the betterment of all. Mr. Lindbergh stated that by so doing the farmer could improve his situation so that when he goes from home he can travel in as good cars and stop at as good hotels as the traveling salesman, the lawyer or other business men.

It now happens that some traveling salesmen are opposing Lindbergh, claiming that Lindbergh is for the farmers and against the middlemen. Mr. Lindbergh says that the interests of the farmer and the country merchant and others in business in the country are united and that each needs the other.

Of course the traveling men generally are not taking part, but why even a few should think they are justified in coming into this district and opposing Mr. Lindbergh because he says it is for the interests of the farmers to keep as well organized as other people is hard to see, for Mr. Lindbergh shows that the principal advantage in the farmers' organization is to co-operate with the merchants and business men in general. He has clearly shown that the farmer, the merchant and the business interests prosper together—that all to a large extent, depend upon the farmer, and that it is a great advantage to the farmer to live near a thriving, prosperous village.

Every thoughtful, intelligent merchant knows that his own prosperity depends very largely upon that of the farmer. Mr. Lindbergh is showing the farmer how by combination and organization he can obtain larger prices for his farm products, is by just so much increasing the prosperity of the country merchant, for we all know that it is the country merchant that in the end gets the most of the farmer's money.

They should all be friends and supporters of Mr. Lindbergh. Whenever you find a salesman who understands Mr. Lindbergh's position, and still opposes him, you will find it is for political and not for business purposes.—Transcript.

Red School House Shoes

You escape Fatigue in wearing them.

The striking style of the Red School House Shoe is the first thing that impresses you; but not less pleasing are the ease and comfort for which they have been noted.

The worst thing about breaking in a pair of shoes is the hard, stiff feeling of the shoes. They are made of stiff, unyielding leather and every step you take is an effort to make the leather bend, but you instantly notice the difference when you put on a pair of the Red School House shoes. They are especially constructed with the object of securing extreme flexibility of the inner sole. The foot feels as if it rested on a soft cushion, instead of a hard leather bottom. The Red School House Shoe combines all these many points which count for a great deal if you value comfort, and care to escape fatigue. Yet, they cost no more than you have to pay for the ordinary characterless shoes. They include all styles and shapes from which every foot can be fitted, every taste pleased and every need gratified.

REGARDING SPELLING REFORM.

Andrew Carnegie Talks on Subject and Also Gives Roosevelt Credit.

New York, Oct. 29.—Andrew Carnegie, accompanied by his wife and daughter, returned from Europe on the steamer Celtic and had something to say regarding reformed spelling.

Efforts were being put forth, he said, to have the English and the American branches of the reform spelling association meet in conference. It was expected that Canada and Australia would send delegates to such a conference. In his opinion spelling reform was bound to come. He declared that President Roosevelt had done more to accomplish the reform than all the philologists together had done in twenty years.

BRAINERD TWENTY YEARS AGO

Dispatch Files of Twenty Years Ago this Week.

P. G. Fogelstrom and L. Stahlman were candidates for county commission in the Third district and J. S. Gardner in the Second.

A. V. Snyder moved his store across the street into the store formerly occupied by the Wells Fargo Co.

W. A. Fleming left for a three week's visit at his former home in New York.

A. H. Whitely, of Baltimore, Md., was visiting his brother, R. K. Whitely.

Rev. Father Vaudry resigned the pastorate of St. Francis church and was to go to Rome. Rev. Father Watry, formerly stationed at Morris, was appointed by the bishop to succeed him.

"Tom Congdon and wife arrived from St. Paul Tuesday. Mr. Congdon, since he left this city, has gained considerable reputation as an artist, his work being considered of a very high grade. He is now located in Kansas. The couple will spend some time visiting among friends and relatives in this city."

"Dr. Bigger, it is reported, will assume entire charge of the culinary as well as the medical department at the N. P. Sanitarium. This is as it should be and will be good news for the patients and employees who are contributors. If the medical and surgical staff at the sanitarium raise the standard of the culinary department to a par with the balance of the institution it will as a whole be deemed a grand success."

"Pap Thomas Post has leased the basement of the Cale block, No. 8, Front street, for a post room. The front room, 20x20 feet, will be fitted up as G. A. R. headquarters, and will be open at all times, and free to all and especially to old soldiers. The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will also use the room as a free reading room."

W. R. Sanford was convicted for murder of Hugh Dolan and sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

The Mississippi river was then the dividing line between Cass and Crow Wing counties, and a proposition was before the people to annex a part of Cass county to Crow Wing.

John T. Frater, who was a candidate for county auditor, withdrew from the race for county auditor.

"The logging operations in the Northern part of the state will be much larger this year than ever before. All the lumber dealers are making preparations to cut an immense quantity."

M. Davenport was acquitted of the murder of J. C. Polly on the grounds of self defense. He was bound over in the sum of $1,000 for the killing of Chas. Polly, the son of J. C. Polly.

A boy by the name of Campbell had his arm broken by a fall from a wood pile at the Second ward school house.

Twenty years ago Si Hallett was relieved of a very troublesome tooth, and—well ask Doc Ribble.

Henry E. Jones, of Tampa, Fla., writes: "I can thank God for my present health due to Foley's Kidney Cure. I tried doctors and all kinds of kidney cures, but nothing done me much good until I took Foley's Kidney Cure. Four bottles cured me, and I have no more pain in my back or shoulders. I am 62 years old, and suffered long, but thanks to Foley's Kidney Cure I am well and can walk and enjoy myself. It is a pleasure to recommend it to those needing a kidney cure." H. P. WOULD NOT RUN FOR MAYOR

Col. C. D. Johnson Declined Democratic Nomination for Mayoralty

WILL RUN FOR ALDERMAN

Democratic Committee Made One Nomination Saturday to Fill Vacancy.

The democratic nominations, as filed with the city clerk Saturday afternoon were quite different from those made at the ward caucuses and city convention. The convention authorized the city committee to fill all vacancies and they did so in some instances. In others they left the place on the ticket vacant. This latter was the case with the head of the ticket, Col. C. D. Johnson, preferring to run for the office of alderman, to which position the ward caucuses had nominated. Thos. Blackburn was substituted for John McCarthy, who declined to serve as a candidate for alderman in the Second Ward. Mr. Blackburn, who had circulated a nominating petition as independent candidate for city treasurer, decided Saturday not to file, as the fact of three candidates in the shops was tending to engender bad feeling up there and he deemed it wisest not to run for that office at this time.

WHAT WILL BE THE "FATE" OF OUR NATION? VOTER! IT'S UP TO YOU.

In accepting the nomination to the office of mayor of Brainerd by the public ownership party, I feel it is my duty to voice the sentiment of the party, and our reasons for entering the political arena.

In the first place, we deem it proper to say, in seeking public offices that we do not seek them for personal gains nor for political distinctions, but because we feel that it is our duty, and the duty of every loyal man and woman, to serve the people in any official capacity, whenever the cause of "need" against "greed" demand our services. We have heard eminent speakers tell us time and time again of the glorious country we live in, and the splendid achievements of Washington liberating us from the oppression of a foreign king. We have been told that we are the richest, most prosperous and foremost nation in the world; that we are the grandest nation the sun ever shone upon; a nation with a government of the people, by the people, and for the people; a nation where equal rights and justice prevail everywhere, symbolized by Old Glory, the emblem of liberty, permeating the air with the sacred memories of our beloved heroes whose groans, prayers and life blood was sacrificed for her preservation, that the sons and daughters of her fair land might be forever free and independent.

Oh, what a grand nation this would be if all this could be said truthfully. It would be the realization of the dreams, hopes and aspirations of the ages, crystallized in the forces of Washington and Lincoln. We know very well and acknowledge the fact that we are a great nation; that our resources are foremost of nations; that we have a great many blessings not achieved by other nations; that the forces of Washington and Lincoln secured us an independent consolidated government, such as never known in history; still after all what has been said and done, is it not a fact that the dreams, hopes and aspirations of our forefathers are rapidly receding into a former or a worse state of affairs, wherein not only one king is the oppressor, but several kings—money kings. They virtually rule the country in a manner where mercy and sympathy for the people is rarely considered; where "greed" preys upon "need"; where poverty and crime is constantly increasing; where the Pinkertons, armed guards and militia are called out to arrest or shoot citizens for supposed or petty offences; where free speech and liberty guaranteed by the constitution are constantly encroached upon; where legislative halls and courts of justice are filled, not with what we call honorable men, but with infernal beings who do the bidding of the "Yellow Devil." Read "The Treason of the Senate" in the Cosmopolitan, and you will understand the gravity of the situation confronting this nation.

In the past we had statesmen, today we have politicians—Statesmen work for the interest of the nation—paid politicians work for the "interests"—the trusts, who control most of the opinion-making machinery, moulding public thought. As a result we are often told of the great blessings bestowed upon society by our "generous" millionaires, but we are rarely told that they are virtually "parasites" seeking the life blood out of the nation, absorbing its wealth, its means of production and source of livelihood.

We will consider a few figures which will show some startling facts, not generally known or spoken of by our so-called "Friends of Labor." The U. S. census and eighteenth annual labor report discloses the following:

THE UNEMPLOYED

1889 (census 1890)—15.1 per cent. of the total working men, unemployed. 1898 (census 1900)—22.3 per cent. of the total working men, unemployed. 1903 (18th U. S. labor report)—49.81 per cent. unemployed.

By these figures we see that idleness is constantly increasing. Nearly one half of our workers, including farm labor, are unable to find employment all the time. Commissioner Wright enumerates the causes of unemployment as follows:

| CAUSE OF IDLENESS | Per cent. |
|--|-----------|
| Establishment closed, unable to get work and slack work... | 56 96 |
| Sickness..... | 23 65 |
| Vacation..... | 6 45 |
| Bad weather..... | 2 25 |
| Strikes..... | 2 07 |
| Accident..... | 1 66 |
| Not given..... | 6 68 |
| Drunkenness..... | 26 |

Notwithstanding the usual cry that idleness is caused by drunkenness, the reader will please note that only about one fourth of one per cent. is due to this habit, while sickness claims nearly twenty-five per cent. or one fourth of our total labor force. Think of it, and all the sorrow caused by it!

The report further says:

| TENURE OF HOMES | | | |
|---|--------|------|------|
| (Per cent) | Rented | Free | Mort |
| 1903 (18th U. S. labor report) working class families.. | 81.1 | 10.6 | 8.3 |
| 1900 (U. S. census report) all families.. | 53.5 | 31.8 | 14.7 |
| 1890 (U. S. census report) all families.. | 52.2 | 34.4 | 13.4 |

Dear Reader:—Study these figures calmly and carefully, and if you are a mathematician, you can estimate closely how long it will be before the Rockefeller crowd will own your home. Do they not disclose the fact that we are rapidly becoming a nation of tenants and paupers? Do they not point out the base or main cause of our many crimes committed in a rash moment of despondency, brought on by idleness and loss of the most sacred spot on earth—the home? It seems to me that such a condition is sad enough to change the attitude of every loyal American citizen. Yet back of this is a still sadder story, sad enough to bring tears in the eyes of every man and woman with parental love; it is the saddest story ever written—the story of child labor. Edwin Markham writes in the October Cosmopolitan as follows:

"Two and a half million of children under fifteen years of age are now at long and exhaustive work in the offices, mills and mines of our model republic." He quotes a superintendent of the Alton Glass works, as follows:

"Child labor is necessary to the interest of commerce." Mr. Markham further says, "What is this new god 'commerce' thrown upon his pyramid of skulls?" Further on he says: "Is this civilization? Then let civilization perish! Let the walls of cities crumble; let the ancient deserts return."

John Graham Brooks in "The Social Unrest" gives the distribution of wealth in the United States of which the following is in part:

"The rich class numbering only 125,000 families or 'one' per cent. of our population own $32,880,000,000, which is equal to 54.8 per cent. of our total wealth while the 'very poor,' numbering 6,250,500 families or 'fifty' per cent. of our population, own nothing." Can't you see as in old handwriting on the wall? Can't you see that we are drifting to the doom of empires of by-gone time?

Quoting from "J" in Everybody's magazine for September: "Egypt fell when three per cent. of her people owned all the wealth and then passed into history. Greece was a tottering nation when the wealth was owned by two per cent. of her people, and when it was further centralized into the hands of one and a half per cent. of her people it toppled with its own weight. At the fall of Rome, 2000 people owned all the wealth of the civilized world. History repeats itself. 'Beware of the buzz-saw,' and read 'Soldiers of the Common Good' in Everybody's magazine, that a great national calamity may be averted. To avert such a calamity, and to liberate all the people from industrial despotism, poverty and want, is the object of the International socialist party, which is known in Minnesota as the public ownership party. No matter what the 'wizards' of Wall street or any other streets may say, do, or think about the socialists. We have come to rescue this nation from an impending peril. We stand upon principles, laid down in the 'Sermon on the Mount.'

We appeal to every loyal American citizen to study the principles of the socialist party, join or vote with them so as to obtain the powers of government, necessary in order to establish the co-operative commonwealth, the collective or joint ownership of all public utilities. Whenever this is accomplished, industrial despotism, poverty and want will be no more.

Then—Old Glory, thou beautiful emblem of liberty, thy stars and stripes, will float over the nation, where war will be no more, where justice, love and liberty shall reign forevermore.

Respectfully submitted, The Public Ownership (Socialist) Party A. OUSDAHL

TRACKLAYERS CLASH

FOUR HUNDRED MEN ENGAGE IN A PITCHED BATTLE NEAR BEARDS, KY.

SEVERAL COMBATANTS HURT

RAILS ARE CHARGED WITH ELECTRICITY TO PREVENT THEM BEING TORN UP.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 29.—A pitched battle in which picks, shovels and fists were used as weapons, and in which 400 men participated, was fought by rival tracklayers' gangs of the Louisville and Nashville railroad and the Louisville and Eastern electric railway. About two score of the combatants were badly shocked or battered up. The fight took place just east of Beards, where a gang of 100 Louisville and Eastern men attempted to lay their track across the Louisville and Nashville line.

They had partially finished when 300 Louisville and Nashville men appeared and started tearing the rails up. A general fight followed immediately, during which the Louisville and Eastern men resorted to the novel expedient of charging the rails they had just laid with electricity from a trolley wire. When the Louisville and Nashville men applied their crowbars to the charged rails a score of them were knocked down but soon recovered.

An armed truce now prevails and it is expected the matter will be taken into court.

THREE PERSONS KILLED.

More Than a Score of Others Injured by Gas Explosion.

Coffeyville, Kan., Oct. 29.—Three persons were killed and four others were seriously injured and twenty more were more or less injured in a terrific explosion of natural gas, which completely demolished five two-story brick business blocks here. The dead are:

Jesse Ross, a negro; Mrs. J. E. McDaniel, and the young son of C. J. Clossen.

C. J. Clossen, Cotton Ray, Mrs. Pearl Keeler and the three-year-old son of Mrs. Keeler were seriously injured.

The buildings were occupied by a real estate office, three stores and a restaurant. The second floors of all the buildings were used by rooming houses.

Ross and Mrs. McDaniel were frightfully injured and died shortly afterwards.

The entire block of five buildings was levelled to the ground, and only broken bricks, scattered lumber and twisted iron remain.

A fire broke out immediately after the explosion, but the flames were quickly extinguished.

WOMAN EATEN BY WOLVES.

Only Her Skull and a Few Bones Found by Her Brother.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 29.—Professor Frank Hewitt of Chicago has just reached Dawson City with all that is mortal of his lost sister, Dr. Emily Chambers, who was eaten by wolves in the Far North. She was a graduate of the Minnesota school of dentistry at Minneapolis, practiced in Chicago and St. Louis, and was getting material for writing a book when she met such a terrible fate.

Only after a two years' search, a 400-mile walk through swamps and terrible suffering, did Hewitt find where his sister last camped. He found only part of the skull and a few bones, and identified them by parts of underclothing, cloth, and a shoe. She left home July 24, 1901, and the remains were found last September.

COLLISION OF FREIGHT TRAINS.

Four Indianapolis Men Lose Their Lives in Wreck.

Indianapolis, Oct. 29.—In a head-on collision of two freight trains west of Springfield, O., on the Peoria and Eastern division of the Big Four railroad, four Indianapolis men lost their lives, while a fifth is not expected to recover. Fred Oren, a fireman of Urbana, Ill., is missing and is believed to have been killed. The dead are:

Engineer Frank Cook, Fireman Charles Thompson and Conductor David E. Wallace, and Brakeman Roy Welsh, all of Indianapolis.

Alonzo Weaver, an engineer, is at a hospital at Springfield, O., perhaps fatally injured.

STORM IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Causes Loss of Life and Heavy Damage to Property.

Seranton, Pa., Oct. 29.—A miniature storm swept the Lackawanna valley at night, causing untold damage and leaving death, injury and destruction in its path. For almost an hour the wind blew at a fearful rate, and when it subsided it was found that one death had resulted, dozens of persons injured, two coal breakers completely ruined and two others damaged and property generally destroyed. The loss will be in the neighborhood of $1,000,000.

DO NOT BE A BURDEN

H. P. Dunn & Co. Give Some Good Advice to Readers of the Dispatch

A weak stomach and its resulting ills are not natural. With proper care and the use of Mi-o-na stomach tablets, the very worst case of indigestion or stomach trouble can be completely cured.

It is a sin to deprive oneself of enjoyment in life and become a burden to others through indigestion.

The backaches, headaches, distress after eating, loss of appetite, gulping up of undigested food and gases are not natural. Mi-o-na stomach tablets used for a few days before meals will so strengthen the digestive organs that you can eat anything you want without fear of distress or resulting sickness.

The directions for taking Mi-o-na emphasize the difference between this remedy and the ordinary medicine that is given for indigestion. Mi-o-na is to be used before meals, strengthening the digestive system for the food which is to be eaten, while the ordinary remedy is taken after meals, and simply digests the food without strengthening the stomach.

H. P. Dunn & Co. have so much faith in the merit of Mi-o-na that they sell it under a guarantee to refund the money in case it does not cure. A 50c box of Mi-o-na will do more real good than a dozen packages of the ordinary remedies sold for indigestion. Then, too, it costs nothing unless it cures.

REPUBLICAN RALLY TONIGHT

Senator Moses E. Clapp and Hon. E. S. Dummer will Address the People at The Opera House

The people of Brainerd have some distinguished speakers with them tonight and U. S. Senator Clapp and Hon. E. S. Dummer will address an audience at the opera house at 8 o'clock. Senator Clapp is well known in this city, having spoken here on former occasions. He is a fluent talker and none who have heard him before will miss the treat tonight. Mr. Dummer is also an able talker, and the occasion to hear these gentlemen should not be missed by any who are interested in the welfare of the state or nation. It was expected that A. L. Cole, candidate for governor, would be present but engagements elsewhere demanded his attention.

WORK WEAKENS THE KIDNEYS

Doan's Kidney Pills Have Done a Great Service for People Who Work in Brainerd

Most Brainerd people work every day in some strained, unnatural position—bending constantly over a desk—riding on jolting wagons or cars—doing laborious household work; lifting, reaching or pulling, or trying the back in a hundred and one other ways. All these strains tend to wear, weaken and injure the kidneys until they fall behind in their work of filtering the poisons from the blood. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, put new strength in bad backs—Brainerd cures prove it.

Mrs. Peter Christensen, of 1101 Rosewood St., S. E., Brainerd, Minn., says: "It is over two years ago when Mr. Christensen was doing heavy contracting work that kidney complaint made its appearance in the form of backache and pains over the kidneys. Sometimes it caused lameness so bad that it required great effort to keep at work, and at best there was a continual annoyance. Doan's Kidney Pills, sold by H. P. Dunn & Co., druggists, were procured on the advice of a friend, and the results of their use was so satisfactory that every symptom of his trouble disappeared. The improvement in his condition has remained unchanged during the time which has elapsed since then."

For sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

NO DEED OF SEPARATION.

Duke and Duchess of Marlborough Have Not Signed One.

London, Oct. 29.—Sir George Henry Lewis, acting as solicitor for the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, says he is authorized to state that no deed of separation between the duke and duchess has been signed and that the children of the couple are not in the custody of the duchess but are with their father at Blenheim castle. The text of the solicitor's statement follows:

"The Duke of Marlborough and members of his family, including the Marquis of Blandford and Lord Ivor Spencer Churchill, the duke's sons, are in the residence at Blenheim. The report that a deed of separation already had been signed is untrue."

TO CAPTURE INDIANS

SIXTEEN TROOPS OF CAVALRY TAKE THE FIELD AGAINST REBELLIOUS UTES.

BY DISPLAY OF LARGE FORCE INTENDED TO OVERAWE BAND OF REDSKINS AND PREVENT A CONFLICT.

Omaha, Oct. 29.—The departure from Fort Robinson, Neb., of four troops of the Tenth cavalry makes sixteen troops of cavalry, a total of 765 officers and men, en route to the scene of the depredations of the band of Ute Indians now supposed to be in camp on Powder river in Wyoming.

Four troops of the Tenth, under command of Major Grierson, are now in Wyoming near the Indian camp; six troops of the Sixth cavalry, 275 strong, from Fort Meade, S. D., and two troops of the same regiment from Fort Keogh, ninety strong, under command of Colonel Alexander Rodgers, are en route for that point, marching overland. Colonel Jacob A. Auger goes with the detachment which left Fort Robinson, and as senior officer will be in command of the entire expedition. No move will probably be made until all the forces are joined.

"It is hoped by the display of a strong force to overawe the Indians and prevent a fight," said Major C. A. Noyes, military commander of the department of the Missouri. "They are, however, well armed and very sullen and it is hard to say what will happen. There are about 350 in the party, including women and children, but I do not think there are over 150 fighting men among them."

SPARS OF UNKNOWN VESSEL.

Sighted by the Captain of a Lake Steamer in Pigeon Bay.

Detroit, Oct. 29.—When the steamer City of Cleveland arrived at Detroit Captain A. McLachlan reported that he sighted the spars of an unknown schooner or barge sunk in Pigeon bay. A lumber laden steamer was lying at anchor near the spars, but was too far distant to make out the name. It is possible that the spars Captain McLachlan saw were those of the steamer Packard, which went down in Pigeon bay some time ago.
